

Peace Partners Hosts Gala to Raise Funds for TPRF

Peace Partners will host a Gala Benefit at the Denbies Wine Estate in Dorking, Surrey, England to raise funds for The Prem Rawat Foundation (TPRF) on November 19.

The event is open to the public and will feature a 3-course dinner, guest speakers, an auction, and live music. TPRF President Daya Rawat will give a keynote address as well as a musical performance.

Peace Partners is a UK charity with the mission of supporting TPRF's efforts to help people live with dignity, peace, and prosperity.

"It is an honor to welcome you to this special evening. The objective is to raise funds to support the incredible work of TPRF, which operates a number of lifesaving global programs such as Food for People and the Peace Education Program," says Peace Partners Founder Juli Hammersley. "We are fortunate to give our support to this foundation as it continues to do such wonderful things in the world.”

TPRF Development Director Marci Klein will be at the event to update attendees on the latest news about the foundation’s work. “Thank you so much to everyone at Peace Partners and all of the volunteers and attendees who are helping make this gala a wonderful event,” says Marci. “It’s going to be a fabulous time, and it’s going to raise money for a fabulous cause. Independent fundraisers like this are crucial to maintaining and expanding programs that have been proven to transform lives.”
