

Prem Rawat Foundation to Help Hurricane Victims in Bahamas

The Prem Rawat Foundation (TPRF) will aid victims of Hurricane Dorian in the Bahamas with an initial $30,000 grant. The catastrophic storm devastated the island nation with 185 mph winds and flooding, killing at least 30 people and leaving thousands of survivors without food, water, medical care, and shelter.

DONATE HERE to help hurricane victims in the Bahamas.

Your support will add to the amount TPRF will contribute to help those in need.

“Your donations will play an important role in helping people cope with this tragedy. Thanks to all of you who empower The Prem Rawat Foundation to provide essential aid to people during their darkest hours,” says TPRF Board Chair Linda Pascotto.