

Supporters Raise $162,824 During “Hunger for Peace Appeal”

Donors showed generous support for The Prem Rawat Foundation (TPRF) during the “Hunger for Peace Appeal,” raising $162,824 for signature initiatives such as the Peace Education Program (PEP) and Food for People (FFP).

“Many thanks to each one of you who donated and volunteered to make this appeal such a success!” says TPRF President Daya Rawat. “In a very practical way you are there behind each meal that gives a child an opportunity for a better future and each person who discovers their own inner resources in a PEP workshop.”

The appeal took place throughout May and featured four new videos that highlight how contributions to TPRF make a remarkable difference in people’s lives around the world. Nearly 1,000 donors participated in the effort, including several especially generous donors who provided $52,000 in matching funds.

“Your contributions help ensure the ongoing efforts of TPRF to foster respect for human dignity, the discovery of individual peace, and the possibility to enjoy prosperity,” says Daya.

Watch the four videos that were released during the appeal below:

Light Up the World

*Please turn on subtitles (cc) for non-English translation if available.

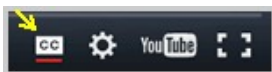

PREVIOUS VIDEOS

Provisions: The Simple Power of Food

*Please turn on subtitles (cc) for non-English translation if available.

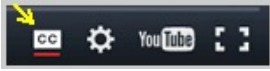

Taylor's University

*Please turn on subtitles (cc) for non-English translation if available.

A Veteran Speaks on Peace

*Please turn on subtitles (cc) for non-English translation if available.

